Meet Jane, our Office Manager/ Treasurer

By Becky Brown

I was a church secretary for 17 years and once belonged to a philanthropic sorority. At a convention, someone asked me about my job. I said I was a church secretary. They laughed and called my job easy and stressless. It is a beautiful job, but not an easy one and certainly not stressless. After sharing some experiences and circumstances with them, they decided to go home and give their church secretary a huge THANK YOU.

This month, we will explore our secretary Jane with you. Jane's journey is a tapestry of unique experiences. Born and raised on a farm in Huntington County, she made a significant move to Zanesville in Wells County during mid-8th grade. After marriage, she spent a decade and a half in Missouri, where she raised her three children. Her return to Indiana, her homecoming, was marked by purchasing a home in Markle five years ago.

Jane's life has been a whirlwind of diverse experiences. She made cowboy hats (not her favorite job) and worked for a beer distributor. Jane has cruised the Caribbean twice and the Pacific once. She has rappelled waterfalls, zip-lined in the Port of Vallarta, Mexico, and then gone on to do deep-sea fishing and drive the road to Hana on Maui.

Jane also shares her aspirations for the future, expressing her desire to explore more of the United States and hopes to fulfill that dream someday. For the most part, Jane has had a wonderful life, with a few bumps in the road that have strengthened her to where she is now.

Jane has been a secretary at Solid Rock for seven years this past June. Her roles include ensuring the office and church run as smoothly as possible. (Trust me when I say some days it's a lot harder than others.) There is a lot of behind-the-scenes work that requires some of her time. Jane is also the Treasurer, which means she pays all the bills, handles payroll, and assists with money transactions

(except for contributions). Jane wants the congregation to know they can come in or call for anything they need. (From experience, some of our favorite times are when we interact with the congregants).

Jane graduated from Norwell High School and was hired to start a computer system for an insurance company in Huntington. The company sent Jane to Pennsylvania for computer courses, which she thought was crazy because she knew nothing about computers. At this time in her life, there were no computers at home or school. And to this day, Jane still doesn't care to know their ins and outs. She has held all office positions except for six years since graduating from high school.

Some of Jane's most memorable moments include forming relationships with everyone who comes through the door or the ones she talks to on the phone. She loves interacting with people and totally loves her church family. Jane loves being happy and making others happy, with laughter and smiles that are easy for her to share. Jane told me this is one of her favorite jobs she has had. She said, "And I often say it is not a job at all, but it is my pleasure to help and be there for anyone in any way I can."

One of the most challenging aspects of her job is the church funerals. Jane knows 89% of the people who have services at our church. Jane is sentimental and knows most of our congregation. She wants everything to be perfect for the family without worrying about anything. But, on the other hand (Jane goes on to say), when her mom passed, it gave her great joy to be with her the whole time, and it gave her so much comfort to enter the sanctuary by herself and talk to her.

Jane's hobbies are varied and exciting. She loves anything water-related, such as boating, floating in the pool, or lying on the beach. "You might say anything summer." She loves every sport on land involving her children or grandchildren. These include cheerleading, baseball, basketball, tennis, track, soccer, gymnastics, and dancing. Jane's greatest love is Indiana University...The Hoosiers!

Finally, she shared with me her family, which includes Zack, his significant other Erin, and their children Kylee, 16, Nolan, 13, Miles, 11; Katie, and her significant other Isaac, and their children Jadon, 12, Sophia, 10, Solomon, 7; Dana, and her significant other Erik, and their children Eden, 13, Brantley, 11 Crew, 5, and Canon, 3.

Jane is an amazing woman and an even better secretary. We are blessed with someone like her, and she adds so much to our church family. Take time this month to stop in and thank Jane for the fantastic job she is doing.

Life Lessons from Genesis

The Friends in Faith Class has been studying Genesis and we have found many life lessons, many that have surprised us! I'd like to share this one from Chapter 19, the accounting of the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah.

When Abraham found out that the Lord was going to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah, he asked the Lord to spare Lot and his family, who had settled there earlier. The Lord promised that He would and sent angels to retrieve the family. Lot did not recognize them as angels but welcomed them into his home as was the custom. Soon a vicious crowd surrounded the house and demanded that Lot send the visitors out to them. In those times, protecting and serving ones guests was most important, so instead of sending out the visitors, Lot offered up his daughters to the menacing crowd.

The angels, realizing that things were getting serious, took the family members by the hand and headed for the hills, telling the family to go and not look back. However, on the way, Lot's wife could not bear leaving her home and turned to look longingly back at the city, and for doing so, was turned into a pillar of salt.

The Life Lessons:

- #1 Don't offer your daughters to the maddening crowd. It's not nice.
 - #2 Don't look back longingly at your past. Just give it up to the Lord or you might regret it.
 - #3 When an angel takes your hand and says, "Run!" Do it!
- Friends in Faith meet every Sunday morning in Fellowship Hall. Come join us!

week. A decade ago, the figure fell to 38%, and it is currently at 30%. This decline is largely driven by the increase in the percentage of Americans with no religious affiliation — 9% in 2000-2003 versus 21% in 2021-2023 — almost all of whom do not attend services regularly.

Still, most religious groups have also seen a decline in regular attendance at religious services over the past two decades...

...On any given weekend, about three in 10 U.S. adults attend religious services, down from 42% two decades ago. Church attendance will likely continue to decline in the future, given younger Americans' weaker attachments to religion.

Specifically, more 18- to 29-year-olds, 35%, say they have no religious preference than identify with any specific faith, such as Protestant/nondenominational Christian (32%) or Catholic (19%). Additionally, young adults, both those with and without a religious preference, are much less likely to attend religious services — 22% attend regularly, eight points below the national average.

These trends are consistent with other Gallup indicators of religious beliefs and practices, including the importance of religion to Americans and formal membership in churches and other houses of worship. (Source: Gallup Poll Social News)

There may be many reasons for the departure of the faith: the lack of true biblical teachings and understanding of Scriptures, perceived and/or proven “hypocritical” actions by those within the faith systems, the busyness of today’s families to provide for their families (financially, participating in family activities, etc...), traumas caused by trusted leaders of the church, church belief systems appear to be “obsolete” to today’s generations, unrealistic demands/expectations of the church, people feeling judgment wrongly from those within the church system, to name a few. Whatever the cause(s) might be, Satan is deceiving many to leave their faith to follow their own desires and plans in an attempt to erase spirituality from existence.

What people don’t fully understand is the eternal ramifications of their decisions to exodus from their faith: eternal separation from God. If people believe there is no God, there is no sin to atone for, so there is no eternal punishment. Even if people truly hold to this belief, that doesn’t negate the reality of God and/or His holy Scriptures. If people fall away from faith because they are too busy watching “believers” and their failures to justify their departures from a relationship with God, they are going to be at a great loss of not only having intimacy with God but also all that God wishes to give to every believer. They will forfeit their eternal soul to believe the lies the world severely attempt to force upon each person.

The second exodus is also announced in the Scriptures

but this exodus is led by Jesus Christ Himself:

“Immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. Then will appear in heaven the sign of the Son of Man, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. And he will send out his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other...” (Mt 24:29–32)

In this exodus, it isn’t the people leaving the church; it’s the Church exiting the world! No more will Satan be able to harm those who belong to God because Jesus will gather all believers from the four corners of the world and this is known to many as The Rapture. When (and not if...) this takes place, those left behind will see the true impact of their disbelief in God/Jesus/Holy Spirit. Then, it will be too late for them.

How do we change the outcome of those in the latter exodus to avoid being left behind because of their unbelief? By trying to stop the former exodus from happening in our churches. Consider the following:

- Teach/educate the importance of our spiritual life – Our spirituality isn’t a myth, a “story” we share to control someone, but it’s a reality that every person has a soul and God longs to have intimacy with us.
- Share God’s love by example and live out its reality – If we prove it by example, others will see the reality of the beauty it brings us.
- Stop looking at others and focus on God – As the Scriptures share, many will fall away from their faith. If we keep focusing on the lives and actions of others to justify our faith/lack of faith, we never get to see the beauty of having a relationship with God because of man’s flaws.
- Truly strive to find intimacy with God – When you look for God, you will find Him.

If you are in the first exodus and avoiding connecting with God, He bids you to come home. You are still welcome to come home but please do it before the second exodus... By then, it will be too late.

God’s plan and His ways of working out His plan are frequently beyond our ability to fathom and understand. We must learn to trust when we don’t understand.

Shepherding Moments

by Pastor John Boyanowski

The Christian Exoduses

As he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?" And Jesus answered them, "See that no one leads you astray. For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and they will lead many astray. And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not alarmed, for this must take place, but the end is not yet. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places. All these are but the beginning of the birth pains.

"Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and put you to death, and you will be hated by all nations for my name's sake. And then many will fall away and betray one another and hate one another. And many false prophets will arise and lead many astray. And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come. (Mt 24:3-14)

Many of us in the Christian faith are familiar with the story of Moses and the story of Exodus from Egypt. In that story, we clearly see how God's hand of mercy fell upon the Israelites and delivered the nation out of the hands of Pharaoh. And many believe that such a story doesn't really apply to today's generations. I wish to challenge this belief and show you how we are amid an exodus today and preparing for another exodus to begin.

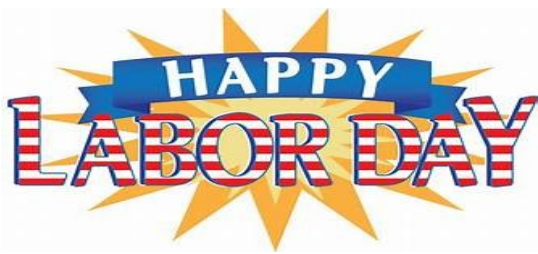

The first one I wish to address is the current exodus from the faith. As the Scripture provided shows, people will leave the faith they currently have in the end times. Looking at the decline of church attendance and people claiming to abandon their faith systems:

Nearly All Faiths Seeing Declines in Regular Attendance

Two decades ago, an average of 42% of U.S. adults attended religious services every week or nearly every

Solid Rock Daily Prayer Card for September 2024

Prayer is the greatest, simplest privilege of our lives as believers.

Thank you for continuing to pray for Solid Rock. Following are some special requests:

- Father God, We pray for the nation of Nigeria and all the nations represented in the International Pastors Mentoring Pastors and their ministries; please bring relief and comfort to their situations of oppression, hardship, and medical issues. Provide for Your people and Your ministers/families their needs and the needs of their communities. Protect them from injustice and deliver them from the hands of those who seek to do them harm. Empower these faithful servants of You and bless their ministries so that the people will know that You ALONE are God. Make what seems impossible become the reality of Your provision and love. May all Your servants know You are Yahweh-Jireh “The LORD will provide” (Gen.22:14). This name is a testimony to God’s deliverance. Thank You for being such a God who will provide! In Your Name we pray, Amen .
- Lord Jesus, We rejoice in You because of Your mercies on us. We give You praise because of Your forgiveness of sins and Your tender love toward each of us. May we learn Your ways for not only our lives but also the ways to love others. We seek to be more obedient to Your calling on our lives and all the more faithful to You. Increase our faith, reduce our doubts, and empower us when we are weak. Produce miracles in us and through us for Your glory and honor. When we are afraid, be our assurance. When we weep, hold us close. When we rejoice, may we praise You all the more because of Your goodness. Build up Your Church—the people who truly seek You and Your will for their lives. We surrender ourselves to Your will. May we bless You as a showing of the gratitude we have for You saving us. Praise be to Your Name, Amen.
- Holy Spirit, You have moved us to know who God is and who Jesus is. Only through You do we see the need for a Savior and who that Savior is: Jesus Christ. Through You, we are drawn to Him. Through You, we see the Scriptures being God’s Word and how it is there for us to draw wisdom and understanding of how to become more intimate with God the Father. Move us to see the need to reach the world around us and to bring them to the saving grace of God. Move us to pray more for those we love. Help us to forgive what we once could never fathom we would be capable of forgiving, once again showing how God’s grace brings us to this point. Work in us and through us to bring God the glory and praise He deserves from us. In God’s precious Name, Amen.
