Prayer Request Cards

A new option for submitting prayer requests has been added. Prayer cards will be available next to the offering plate and bulletins as you enter the sanctuary. They will be collected during the service and Pastor John will read them during sharing of concerns. This will give Pastor John and the church office an accurate written record of the request. Time will continue to be provided during the service for those who prefer to voice their concerns.

Christmas at Solid Rock

Solid Rock begins preparing the sanctuary for Advent and Christmas with the Hanging of the Greens on November 24. All are invited to stay after the worship service for a light lunch and decorating of the sanctuary and other areas.

The children of the church will present a Christmas program during the 10:00 worship service on December 15. (Parents: children will practice during the Sunday school hour at 9:00 that morning.)

Christmas Sunday worship will take place at 10:00 on December 22. This service will feature the Hallelujah Hands choir and the Solid Rock Praise Team.

Our traditional Christmas Eve candlelight service will be held December 24 at 8:00 p.m.

Plan to join us for any or all of these celebrations!

That's a (re)wrap!

The Reintgen family in North Carolina will always remember Christmas 2023. At 3 a.m. on December 25, their 3-year-old son woke them up, asking for scissors to open his new action-figure toy. "That's when we realized something had gone terribly wrong," said Scott, his dad.

A quick trip downstairs revealed a mess of unwrapped gifts under the family's Christmas tree. "There was not one thing that he left unscathed," Scott said. The boy, in his defense, said he was just trying to help everyone know what they'd received.

With only hours until their other children awoke, the Reintgens were determined to save Christmas. Mom Katie raced to rewrap gifts, even managing to get most nametags back on the correct packages. Instead of being angry, the parents found humor in the ordeal. Afterward, they explained to their son the joy that people experience from receiving — and opening — their own presents.

Morals of the story? Remember this 3-year-old when you get overeager for certain parts of the holidays. Don't rush through anything, and let others enjoy Christmas at their own pace too. When something goes wrong, don't panic. Like the Reintgens, find joy in any unexpected glitches and grins you encounter throughout the season.

who were willing to do His will (like Mary, Joseph, etc.), and the rest of Jesus' story would best serve the people of that time.

Now, you might be asking yourself, "Pastor John, what does the Scripture you provided for this article have to do with Jesus' birth?" As we prepare our hearts for the Christmas season, people will question our beliefs about Jesus' birth, about how this and that are flaws in our understanding of the December celebration, and more. Some will argue that Christmas is something that has gone by the wayside and has become "too commercialized." All of these thoughts might have some validity to them; however, what does it mean to you? Do you view it as something that Christian believers shouldn't celebrate?

When I look at Advent and Christmas events, I learn about the great love that God has lavished on us and His attempt to redeem us into the intimacy He longs to have with each of us. (I say attempt because even though He provided the way for this, it remains our choice to accept or reject His plan.) I see that God provided a miracle for mankind that would defeat sin once and for all and how it provides all who believe a way to come before a Holy God because He invited us into His family through Jesus Christ. This brings great joy to many... except to those who are threatened by His power (Herod, for instance, as evidenced by the Matthew and Luke passages). I would love to say that everyone is excited about Jesus' birth and that they are preparing their hearts for the celebration of His arrival, but sadly, I can't.

Christ came to unite us with God. Jesus came to save the world and to reunite us with His Father. Jesus has told us that this would bring division in various ways. Someone once told me that religion divides us, and it certainly does. Look across the various religions and note the differences each have. The story of Jesus' birth is one that shows God reaching out to the world and trying to show His love for them. If the world tries to differ with the holiday, we are to show respect as we stand on what God places on our hearts. We know that division will come and if our hearts are prepared for it as described in the 1 Peter passage shares. At the same time, we can also prepare our hearts for the celebration of Jesus' arrival!

Coming into this Christmas season, and even though we have heard the story many times, it brings a certain joy to my heart. It unites family and friends and brings many closer together. It has stopped wartime fighting (even for just a short time), and it has brought hope to those who feel unnoticed and unloved. Many say, "It's not about the gifts..."; to which I say it's VERY MUCH about the gifts – the gifts that we receive from God through the birth of Jesus Christ into humanity and all He accomplished through Christ!

I pray that God is preparing your hearts to receive His precious gift of salvation, forgiveness, peace, and love. Take time to reflect on Jesus and the importance of Him being part of your life. If you want to know more about Jesus and all that He has done for us, please feel free to reach out to someone you trust and who knows about how great the love God has lavished on us.

Preparing Our Hearts

Now who is there to harm you if you are zealous for what is good? But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you will be blessed. Have no fear of them, nor be troubled, but in your hearts honor Christ the Lord as holy, always being prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and respect, having a good conscience, so that, when you are slandered, those who revile your good behavior in Christ may be put to shame. For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that should be God's will, than for doing evil. 1 Peter 3:13-17; ESV

As the Advent/Christmas season draws near, many begin to reflect on Jesus and their relationship with Him. Others begin to look through their calendars and see how crazy busy it's about to become with all of the traveling, gift wrapping, cooking and baking, and so on. Some are praying for snow (like me), while others are praying for warmer temperatures. Regardless of all the hustle and bustle, one thing remains for Christian believers: the anticipation of the night of Jesus' birth.

Scholars continue to debate the precise time of year when Jesus' birth took place: some mark it in around March, while others look towards September. Some others state that the church settled on the December time to "counteract" the secular celebrations that pagans hosted. It isn't an important issue of when it took place, but the fact that Jesus' birth took place at all. The month isn't as relevant as the timeframe (year). Allow me to explain...

The many prophecies about Jesus' birth circulated for centuries before His birth. What kept God from sending Him earlier than He did? Did God not care about the people of the Old Testament? God certainly did and continues to today. The timing of His arrival came during the time when the world was ready to receive Him. God knew what people had to be in place (alive), people

Solid Rock Daily Prayer Card for December 2024

Prayer is the greatest, simplest privilege of our lives as believers.

Thank you for continuing to pray for Solid Rock. Following are some special requests:

- Blessed Father, we thank You for the gift of Your Son, Jesus. It's so easy to remember Your gift but sometimes we forget how important this gift is to us. Help us to ponder our lives without Jesus being part of it and to realize that only because of Jesus' birth do we have salvation and forgiveness. Allow us to see the depth of the love You gave us in Jesus and appreciate this endless act of love. May we never take for granted You, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. Help us to stay connected with You even beyond Advent. In Your Name, we pray, Amen.
- Precious Jesus, we welcome You into our lives and hearts. May Your presence remain our focus, and may we cherish You as much as You pursue us and long to bring us into God's presence. This Christmas, as we open the gifts of others and give our gifts, may we give others the gift of You and truly make this Christmas one to remember! In Jesus' Name we pray, Amen.
- Holy Spirit, fall fresh on us and allow us to see and experience the miracle of the birth of Christ. Warm our hearts and enlighten us to behold Jesus' birth like the shepherds, guide us to our knees to bow down and worship like the Magi and the Wise men, and let our voices proclaim the joy in our hearts like the angels declared when You were born. Help us to anticipate Your arrival like Simeon and Anna; knowing that we can depart because we have seen God's Chosen with our own eyes. We celebrate God's Gift in Jesus and thank You for revealing Christ to us. Blessed be Your Name, Amen.
- Blessed Trinity, have Your way in our lives. Just as we have received God's gift of the Christ child, may we offer to You our lives for Your good pleasure. May our gift to You be our acceptance of Christ and our devotion to You. Let our lives reflect to light we have received and may it bring others to also accept You as God, Savior, and Lord. Just like Your gift to us was You, we now give ourselves to You as our gift. Let Your will be done. In the Name of the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit, Amen.
