Women of Worship

By Becky Brown

Next month (October) on the 10th and 11th, women will be gathering at Solid Rock for the first women's gathering. The theme will be Women of Worship. This gathering has been inspired and created by God and for God. The committee is extremely excited to see how God will move.

What is WOW all about? WOW is all about worshipping God. We will be learning what worship is, what keeps us from truly worshipping God, and how we worship God when things are difficult in our lives.

Worshipping God is not just for Sundays, when life is good, or when we are in the mood. You will hear stories about times in our lives that keep us from worshipping God. Satan uses circumstances to prevent us from worshipping God. You will learn how to choose to worship God when circumstances challenge us.

We will be worshipping God with praise music, prayer, and life stories. You will be challenged to worship God at all times in all ways.

To join us, please register and submit $10.00. There will be scholarships available. See Marsha Boyanowski, Becky Brown, or the church office for registrations.

Come and join us as we worship the One true God!

Fill the Truck Challenge

By Becky Brown

As you know, since July, we have been collecting toys for the Henderson Settlement in Kentucky. Next month (October), we will be making a trip to Kentucky, to Henderson, with the toys we have collected.

The challenge is to fill this truck with toys so the children in that community will be filled with excitement and joy. Everyone likes to see the excitement on the faces of children when Christmas comes and they receive things under the tree. The parents in the surrounding communities of Henderson struggle with getting Christmas presents for their children. So the Missions Committee has offered to help by supplying toys for these parents to purchase at a minimal fee.

We are asking you to help not only fill the truck but also put smiles on the faces of children and support their parents who struggle during the season. As the Mission sign reads above the map, "God knows NO boundaries."

"And do not forget to do good and share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased." Hebrews 13:16

Gifted to Serve

As part of the Elisha Project, Solid Rock is offering a short-term small group called "Gifted to Serve." In three sessions (or longer if participants desire) those attending will have the opportunity to identify and learn more about their spiritual gifts and to explore Solid Rock ministries and programs in which those gifts might be used. Participants will not be pressured to share their identified spiritual gifts nor to commit to participation in any ministry. Those who wish to pursue deeper involvement in church ministries, however, will be assisted in doing so.

God's Gifts Equip Us for Ministry

Anyone interested in participating in these sessions should contact the church office (375-3873) or Gary Walter (text or phone at 260-228-1007 or email to gary@solidrockwarren.org). Please leave your name, contact information, and days and times that you are available to meet.

"If we find ourselves with a desire that nothing in this world can satisfy, the most probable explanation is that we were made for another world." – C.S. Lewis

Our Mission is to make disciples of Jesus Christ who worship passionately, love extravagantly, and witness boldly.

Thank You!

The Mission Committee would like to thank each of you who has donated to our Missions Fund. Because of your generous and loving donation, we were able to send $300 to the Bread of Life Food Pantry.

Because of your donation, the Bread of Life is purchasing extra easy prep items for children to prepare during the fall break.

Be watching for more details on where your love offerings are being used and how they change the lives of so many.

Whether it is global, in the United States, or local, your love offerings are helping to make things better for those who are struggling and need extra assistance. Please continue to give as often as you can. YOU make a difference! Thank YOU!
Your Solid Rock Mission Committee

Children’s Sunday School

The Children’s Sunday school class has started a new curriculum from Group Publishing called Two or More. Two or More celebrates how small churches can help kids to be seen, known, and loved. Just like Jesus disciplined to a small group, Two or More leads a small group of kids to share Bible-rich experiences as they grow in faith together. The topics for lessons in September are:

We are forgiven, We are known by God, We are followers of Jesus, and Jesus wants to be our friend. Scripture and lessons are taken from the Psalms and Luke for the month.

In August we have had fun lessons about making choices using a raw egg and a hard boiled egg, learned about do-overs, that we have been created for a reason, and God’s promises. The children’s Sunday school class is for all kids from ages 4-13. We want to invite all kids to join us for some fun learning about God on Sunday mornings at 9:00! We’d love to see you!

Food Pantry

Thank you for planting extra vegetable plants or rows of vegetables for the Food Pantry this past spring. The goal of Bread of Life Food Pantry is to offer at least ten different produce items 52 weeks a year. With your help some weeks this summer we have offered 14 different items. Thank you!

Some weeks the Pantry has an abundance of items to offer families who are processing extra produce (cucumbers for pickles, a relish, green beans for canning, sweet corn for freezing, green peppers for stuffing or dicing for soups, etc.).

Thank you for purchasing sweet corn at the railroad crossing. The proprietor of this market is Cole Campbell. Cole donates seed, fertilizer, plants, and harvesting of the corn. He donates proceeds of sweet corn sales to the Pantry.

widow who couldn't work, had no one to support her, and that was all that she had left to give. Was it the amount that captured Jesus' attention or the faith behind it? I believe it was both. Jesus knew that was all she had to live on, yet she saw the needs of others as having more value than what she required. She gave to help others. At the same time, Jesus saw her faith and knew she was relying on God to be her Provider.

This brings me to you... You might not believe you have much to offer. Sometimes, we convince ourselves that since we don't have anything to give in the offering, we feel reluctant to attend church because we don't want to be judged or looked down on for not giving. We also don't offer our services or talents to God because we find flaws within us, or believe we have no talents in comparison to others who we think are more talented. Maybe we have been told we'll never matter, and so we believe that lie.

Your presence at church, in fellowship with one another, in the community, and in life matters! Here are some observations I have noted at our church:

- Your attitude matters - Your personality may be the one that attracts people to you. You might be the one reason why people come to church – to see what makes you who you are. If they see it in you, they will desire it for themselves.
- Your smile – It's a reflection of the inner joy you possess. That smile might be the brightest thing someone has seen all day and it made them feel better because you showed them that they matter to you.
- Your talents – maybe the person standing next to you does so because they enjoy your singing, your prayer, the way you read Scriptures, or share in Sunday School.
- Your compassion – Might be the one thing that someone needs at that moment; a listening ear, a hug, someone to pray with/for them are some of the reasons others come to church or gatherings you attend.
- Your insights – You might have a special way of sharing that makes things easier to understand, having a deeper understanding of something they are searching for, or you help them to know their way of thinking is on the right path.

I can go on, but I believe God will direct you to finding these things out. Your presence is important. You are part of the family. Your experiences can help others through their experiences. Your faith can help someone else's faith grow. Your compassion can bring healing in a broken world. You can inspire someone to do miracles because you have shown someone their capabilities. You are more important than you think!

Please realize that you matter to God and to us! We look forward to seeing you, fellowshipping with you, and having you as part of our lives. Your presence in our lives matters to us!

A 6-year-old and his grandma went for a walk one autumn day. "Look at the gorgeous leaves!" Grandma exclaimed. "Just think, God painted each one of them just for us!"

"Yep," said her grandson, "and he did it left-handed."

Perplexed, Grandma asked, "Why do you think God used his left hand to create all this beauty?"

"Because," said the boy matter-of-factly, "we learned in Sunday school that Jesus sits on God's right one."

Guitarist needed

We are needing another guitar player for praise band. If you are passionate about worship and leading others with music, if you can read a lead sheet or chord chart and would like to play with the praise band, let us know. If you are interested in playing occasionally, that's fine too. We warm up at 8:30 on Sundays, and have an occasional practice. Contact Marie DeWeese if you have an interest.

Shepherding Moments

by Pastor John Boyanowski

Your Presence Matters

And he sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the offering box. Many rich people put in large sums. And a poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which make a penny. And he called his disciples to him and said to them, "Truly, I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the offering box. For they all contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on." Mark 12:41-44; ESV

I have shared in a recent sermon about the power the Church Universal has in the world throughout time: building schools, hospitals, shelters, creating food banks, and so on. In the sermon, I asked you to consider what our world would be like if the Church had never provided the services it has and continues to deliver. Would we have these services in place? Would the world have people stepping in to help make the world a better place? It's scary to imagine, and yet, it must be investigated.

Looking at the passage provided, you might think that this is an article based on tithing finances and that the church (Solid Rock) is asking you to give more. However, this is not the intent of this article. This is to share with you, not just those attending Solid Rock, but to all readers of this, to encourage you to understand that your presence in our lives is significant in many ways.

The widow, in her eyes, had very little to offer: two mites or copper coins. To the church leaders, it wasn't considered to be a generous offering. It wouldn't buy a meal for someone, couldn't pay for the supplies for the church, or even pay a portion of the religious leader's salary. It would never be missed. In today's world, it's like our penny; you can see one on the ground and no one would pick it up because it isn't worth bending down for. Jesus sees it differently...

Jesus knew the woman's circumstances: she was a
