Faith, Football, Fellowship: A Community Men's Breakfast

The Solid Rock Church Men's Fellowship will host a breakfast for men and boys in the community on Saturday, March 14. Breakfast will be served at 8:30 a.m., followed by featured speaker Aaron Mingo, Head Football Coach at Taylor University, talking about the integration of faith and football. A free-will offering will be accepted. Reservations are encouraged for planning purposes, but walk-ins are welcome. Reservations may be made by calling the Solid Rock Church office at (260) 375-3873 or emailing office@solidrockwarren.org. The church is located at 485 Bennett Drive in Warren.

Coach Aaron Mingo just completed his fifth year as head coach of the Taylor University football program, following 12 years of coaching experience at other faith-based colleges. In November Coach Mingo was named Midwest League Coach of the Year by the Mid-States Football Association for the second-straight season. Completing the season with a 7-4 record, Taylor averaged 48.5 points per game and scored at least 35 points in all 11 games.

Small Groups Survey

Solid Rock is contemplating offering small group opportunities in 2026. In order to assess interest in small groups, a survey will be available in January in which you may indicate your interest in leading or participating in a small group and what topics you would find interesting and helpful. In addition to paper surveys available at church, this survey will also be available on our Facebook page, for those who prefer to respond online. We look forward to seeing your responses and how God may use small groups for spiritual growth within our congregation!

Opportunities to serve and participate By Becky Brown

I want us to turn our focus on our church this month. This is a new year, and there will be plenty of opportunities for you to serve, participate, and plan. How will you be involved in our church this year?

This church offers an abundance of opportunities to serve and participate. We have a Mission Committee that is active in various missions. Whether you participate physically, make monetary donations, or pray for our missions in the church, it is a vital opportunity.

We have a Bible study that meets on Monday morning. They will start the book of Revelation this month. It is open to all and to everyone who can meet on Monday mornings. Can't meet on a Monday? We have a few who would jump at a chance to lead an evening study, but we have to know if there is a need. If you'd like a Bible Study in the evening, be sure to let the church know.

The Worship Committee would love to have folks join them on Sunday to sing or play an instrument with them. Ask how and where you can be involved if you are interested in this, or there are many other opportunities.

Like to be in the kitchen? We have opportunities to serve in the kitchen. We are looking for someone to manage the kitchen and help keep the refrigerators and freezer clean and free from outdated items.

We have a women's group that meets once a month for ladies interested in fellowship and service to our community, and there is an opportunity for fellowship on one Saturday a month. Along with a women's group, we have a men's group that meets once a month.

We have youth and children's programs that would love volunteers to teach, mentor, and participate.

This church has plenty of opportunities to serve and participate. These are just a small portion of what Solid Rock offers. As Pastor John says, if you have a calling and it is not available, don't be afraid to ask about getting something started that you are interested in. Greeting,

Happy New Year! Welcome 2026

By Becky Brown

Happy 2026! Sounds a bit strange. We have made it through another year, and a new one is beginning. How do you feel going into the New Year?

Some may be excited and energized, while others are a bit hesitant. For years (many years ago), I was an Eeyore. Do you remember Eeyore? Eeyore was a pessimistic, gloomy, and melancholic donkey. That was me to a T! For several years, our lives were complex, so getting through year to year was challenging. But, come New Year's Eve, that was different and difficult for me.

We had lived through another challenging year; what would the next year bring? I dreaded starting a new year because I couldn't see what it held or how it could get any worse.

Finally, God got through to me that it was all about trusting Him. It was about fully relying on God at all times in all ways. He even allowed me to invite frogs into my life so I would always have a reminder.

"So don't worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring its own worries. Today's trouble is enough for today." Matthew 6:34

"For I know the plans I have for you," says the Lord. "They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope." Jeremiah 29:11

"So do not fear, I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand." Isaiah 41:10

These and many more verses helped me to get past being an Eeyore. I looked back, and it was true: God had always been with me. Even in the difficult times when I couldn't imagine moving on, God helped me get through them. He never left my side.

I started reading the Bible, putting my trust in Him, praying daily, and staying focused on Him and not my circumstances.

The story of Peter walking on the water (Matthew 14:22-33) had a significant impact on my life. As long as Peter kept his eyes on Christ, he was fine, but when he took his eyes off Christ and looked at the circumstances around him, he began to fail and sink. I took that story to heart. I intended to stay focused on Christ, not on my circumstances.

As we enter the New Year, let us each be Peter and focus on Christ, not our circumstances, or, like Peter, we will fail. No one knows the unknown or what the future holds. But let us embrace this New Year, focusing on Christ and the plans He has for us with the confidence that Christ will be at our side no matter what happens.

Lord,

Whether I leave behind a year of joy or of trials and difficulties, I pause to give thanks.

Thank you for being with me every day of every year.

Thank you for making all things new and for giving me the grace of fresh starts and new beginnings.

Remind me of your presence in the days to come, even when I feel pushed and rushed by busyness.

Be glorified in my life this year.

Amen.

was WAY out of his comfort zone and the greatest gift that he thought would match the value of Penny's gift.

I share this because if we have this type of belief system in our gift giving, how do you deal with it when someone out gives you? Do you scramble around to try to match the value of the gift given to you? Do you feel guilty if you can't, at least, try to match the gift's value?

Now, let's look at specifically at Christmas. Not looking at our earthly gifts that we give/receive from one another – our focus is the gift that God gave us: Jesus Christ, His Son. What are your thoughts now?

God gave us His Son to be our replacement for our penalty for our sins. We could never do this for ourselves, and we can never match what Christ gives us. However, we can give Him our lives and live for Him. You might have heard it said, "A life for a life..." and it seems "right." Have you ever thought that in the same way Jesus gave us His life, we ought to also give Him our lives? Or are we like those who are selfish and take God's gift and give Him nothing in return?

I believe that we have an obligation to God for ALL that He's done for us by offering our lives for His will to be done on earth. That is an obligation I am doing my best to live up to. No, I'm not trying to be like Sheldon – I want to be like Christ by reflecting what He has done for me. I want to give my life for His purpose and His calling on my life. I will never be able to match what He has done for me, so, like Sheldon, I can only give Him all that I have to bring a smile to His face – living for Him.

I pray that this brings you closer to God this holiday season. And I hope it carries on for not just the holidays, but for every day for the rest of your life. He lived for us, now, let's live for Him. God bless you all!

smiling, and welcoming all people to our church is a ministry in itself.

1 Peter 4:10, "Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms."

Ephesians 2:10, "For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do."

Joshua 24:15, "But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord."

As the New Year begins, let each of us prayerfully seek or participate in the ways we will serve God this year.

Faith in Action

A Christian is someone who makes it easier for others to believe in God — not through perfection, but through kindness, grace and love in everyday life. When people see Christ's compassion in us, they're drawn closer to Him.

The Train

At birth we boarded the train and met our parents, and we believe they will always travel by our side. However, at some station our parents will step down from the train, leaving us on this journey alone.

As time goes by, other people will board the train, and they will be significant; i.e. siblings, friends, children, and even the love of your life. Many will step down and leave a permanent vacuum. Others will go so unnoticed that we don't realize they vacated their seats.

This train ride will be full of joy, sorrow, fantasy, expectations, hellos, goodbyes, and farewells. Success consists of having a good relationship with all passengers, requiring that we give the best of ourselves.

The mystery to everyone is: We do not know at which station we ourselves will step down. So, we must live in the best way, love, forgive, and offer the best of who we are. It is important to do this because when the time comes for us to step down and leave our seat empty, we should leave behind beautiful memories for those who will continue to travel on the train of life.

Precious Lord, Take My Hand

Thomas Dorsey, a jazz musician from Atlanta, made a bold decision in 1926 to leave behind secular music and devote his talent to writing songs for the Lord. But following that call wasn't easy. During the Great Depression, many church leaders criticized his soulful gospel style, calling it "the devil's music." Dorsey later joked, "I got kicked out of some of the best churches in the land."

Then, in 1932, tragedy struck. While in St. Louis for a revival, he received a telegram that his wife had died suddenly during childbirth. His faith was shaken to the core, and grief nearly silenced him. Yet in his deepest sorrow, Dorsey turned back to what he knew best — music. Out of that heartbreak came one of the most beloved hymns of all time:

*"Precious Lord, take my hand,
Lead me on, let me stand.
I am tired, I am weak, I am worn..."*

Dorsey's song reminds us that even in our valleys, God is near — guiding us, strengthening us, and using our pain to comfort others who walk the same road.

Guitarist needed

We are needing another guitar player for praise band. If you are passionate about worship and leading others with music, if you can read a lead sheet or chord chart and would like to play with the praise band, let us know. If you are interested in playing occasionally, that's fine too. We warm up at 8:30 on Sundays, and have an occasional practice. Contact Marie DeWeese if you have an interest.

Gift Exchange

With the Christmas season just taking place, I have pondered a great deal on the “gift exchange” concept many of us fall into all the time (It’s not just at Christmastime...). You know what I’m talking about. A great illustration of this is found with the TV series The Big Bang Theory:

The lead character, Sheldon Cooper, a geek of great proportions, had an idea: It was Christmastime and he always struggled with gift giving. His thought was that he would purchase gift baskets of various values and when someone gave him a gift, he would simply go to his room, get a gift basket of the same value of the gift given to him, and then he wouldn’t feel bad for not having a gift of the same value. Sounds simple, right? Isn’t that what many of us do today with our gift exchanges?

Remember that I shared that he was a geek? Well, Penny (another main character) had given a gift to Sheldon that he never intended to receive: He thought his plan was foolproof and was ready for any gift Penny offered; well, almost any gift...

Penny was at the time a waitress. She was working when Sheldon’s idol of idols came in and she had waited on him: Leonard Nimoy – Spock himself! Penny had asked Leonard for an autograph and received it on a napkin that Leonard had used (now it had his DNA on it). Receiving this gift, Sheldon went into his room and retrieved the largest gift basket and gave it to Penny. Penny looking stunned by what Sheldon had done, looked perplexed. Sheldon then said to her, “What, isn’t that enough?” Looking more confused, Penny’s face reflected even more confusion. Sheldon took the look as if she wasn’t pleased with the gift and he ran back into his room and retrieved ALL the gift baskets and gave them all to her. Still trying to make some sort of sense of this, Penny looked at her boyfriend Leonard (not Leonard Nimoy) and was seeking his help with the situation. Still feeling that he hadn’t given her enough for the gift of the autograph/DNA napkin, Sheldon gave what he thought was the greatest sacrifice: a hug (Sheldon shows no emotions). For him the hug

Solid Rock Daily Prayer Card for January 2026

Prayer is the greatest, simplest privilege of our lives as believers.

Thank you for continuing to pray for Solid Rock. Following are some special requests:

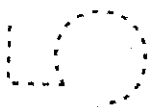

- Father God, we begin this New Year with the hopes for new and positive changes in our lives. We often ask You for making these changes for us and to give us what we desire. We ask that You give us the attitude and the passion to make the changes according to Your will and infinite wisdom. Help us to make our relationship with You our top priority and to desire more intimacy with the One who created us. Thank You for Your grace and peace. May we live for You more this year than we did last year. In Thy Name we pray, Amen.
- Precious Jesus, renew the passion and the splendor of when we first met and how we felt so close to one another. Over the years, some of us have lost that joy and intimacy with You. Come find us and return us to Your fold. We long to have You in our lives and we need You to guide us throughout the rest of our lives. Please come and show us what we miss when we are too busy for time with You. May this year bring us closer to You. In Christ Name, Amen.
- Blessed Holy Spirit, please be the Light that shine within us and help us to guide others to know who You are and how they can receive You in their lives. Help us to not just hope that someone will bring others to You; make us ache to bear witness to the saving grace we receive because You have shown us who You are, who the Father is and His love, and Jesus is and the great sacrifice He became for us. We love and adore You. Light out path as we walk side-by-side with You. In the precious Name of God we pray, Amen.
- Sweet Trinity, we surrender this year to Your will for us. Make us faithful to Your leading. Help us to fulfill Your calling on our lives. Please bless us and our families, and may we all come together as one body to work together for Your glory and honor. We are blessed to have You as our God, and we thank You for Your great love. May Your will be our desire. Thank You for all You do. In the blessed Name of the Trinity, Amen.
