Operation Christmas Child

We are collecting shoeboxes to send to children overseas. This project is a hands-on way for you to bless children in need across the world by filling shoeboxes with toys, personal care items, school supplies and fun gifts. There are boxes at the church with lists of what items to put in them for girls and boys. If you don't like to shop, you can go online to www.samaritanspurse.org and pack a box for $25.00, or contact LeAnn Buzzard and she will get items for you.

November 8th, we will have a packing party after church to fill boxes with items that you have. November 15th is the last Sunday that we will be collecting boxes as they have to be turned in on the 16th.

Dave Banter, A Story to Tell

By Becky Brown

In the Solid Rock family, we have a variety of interesting, talented men and women who have journeyed through this life in various ways. This is a story of another quiet man who has led a long and interesting life. You can even say he was a leader of the pack in his day.

On this day, I interviewed Dave Banter, who was part of the Banter Brothers tractor pulling team. I started out asking Dave how he got into tractor pulling. It seems his dad was a tractor puller and won the state title. As a 14-year-old, Dave got interested in tractor pulling himself with his brothers. They did the old-style pulling. If you could pull only 15 feet, you would stop, and they would measure it. They would do a percentage, and that is how they determined the winner. They often took what they had and used it for tractor pulling, using his dad's mechanical instincts. Dave's brothers, Ira and Ralph, were the ones who could figure things out. Ira and Ralph were the two oldest, and Michael and Dave were the two youngest of the boys. As the years went on, they moved to garden tractors and did that for a couple of years. That was about the time he was getting out of high school.

After high school, his dad and Ira had a construction company and built homes. After two to three years, his brother Mike came home from the Army, and they started up their own construction company. At one point, he was farming for his mother-in-law, doing construction, and tractor pulling. For the last 15 years in tractor pulling, he went full-time. He started tractor pulling in the 1970s. They went all over doing tractor pulling, even as far as Ohio. Each pull seemed to have its own rules.

During this time, Dave and Mike got with another guy to see about getting an organization going. They wanted to make it so that no matter where you went, you pulled with the same rules. This was the start of NTPA, which stands for National Tractor Pull Association. It originated in Illinois, and many of the first pullers to sign up were from Illinois. Finally, when Dave signed up, he was the 45th puller to join.

He paused here to tell me he started out in Banquo and then built a building at LaFontaine where they worked from. He also told me that at this point Ralph was the mechanic and Dave was the driver. When school wasn't going on, his son Steve helped out and went with him. Steve helped out when he could.

A tractor they named Old Brown was the one that got them going. They weren't as particular with names and colors as some of the others. Because the tractor was brown, the name Ole Brown was created. I believe he said it had three engines. They built another, and it was orange, so they called it Orange. The tractors weighed up to 7,200 lbs. That was one of the class weights.

When he joined NTPA, he won a lot. His first win was in Terre Haute, Indiana. NTPA was getting pretty big. He won point champions. He won 27 times. He pulled everywhere he could. The most engines he had on a tractor was seven. He did this for 32-33 years. He was the one who won the most championships back then. Some years he would pull as many as 52 pulls. Sometimes he didn't even make it home between tractor pulls, going from one to another. One year he received the Hooker of the Year award. You would receive a traveling trophy. One year, Golden Harvest, a seed corn company, gave Ralph and Dave a trip to Hawaii, all expenses paid. Their two wives got to go with them for a full week.

He won 22 Grand National Titles. The Banter Brothers were compared to Richard Petty. They got the NTPA started, kept it going, and won many titles. In the 1980s, they started the super pulls. About 15 men wanted to start the super pulls. They wanted the NTPA to join them in the super pulls. They were going to start paying out $50,000 for a win. But the NTPA thought it wouldn't succeed and declined to join them. Their first one was indoors in Indianapolis. They had to come up with a club or start one. Indiana State had one. He was President at the time, and they knew him. They called him down to share ideas on the super pull with them. They voted it down also. They had it, and it was a success. NTPA wanted to join them after the success, but Dave turned them down. Dave was with ITPA (Indiana Tractor Pull) for 18 years. Dave won more super pulls than anyone out there. To get to the super pull, you had to pull all year and have a certain number of points. Ohio had a point winner, Indiana had a point winner, Illinois had winners, as did California.

In 1999, Dave was voted into the Hall of Fame in Las Vegas. Dave retired in 1996. His last pull was in Inwood, Canada. By then, he was pretty much worn out and did not win this time. By this time, many changes had been made to the tractors to make them competitive. He was 50 when he retired.

He has made friends all over. He remembers one young man in Hamburg, New York, who came to the State Fair with his dad. His Dad had a sawmill at the fair. Dave got him to help him over the years.

He had several 6-engine tractors he liked. He had to redo the 7-engine tractor three times before he ever took it out.

He is no longer involved in the NTPA, but is still involved in antique tractor pulling. They generally have 12 a year. He and his brother Ira are still involved. He has won championships in antique tractor pulling. His brother has won more in this area than Dave.

Dave told many heartwarming stories while I was there. Through the years, they built 31 tractors. They would salvage what they could and throw the rest away. They would

OUR VISION

We seek to be a Christ-centered church family where every person is equipped to discover and to use their God-given gifts to serve and share God's love.

And the number one Top 10 Reasons for Attending and/or Joining Church is...

- 1) What else do we have better to do?

We had a little fun with this Top Ten List, but in all seriousness, there truly is good reason for us to attend church and to join a church. If we look at the church in the book of Acts chapter 2, we see a wonderful depiction of how a church should interact with one another and how it is to love and support each of its members as they work towards serving God and the calling that they have from God. The church body is to grow in grace and mercy, being able to share love and compassion to the world around them, to help meet the needs of the community and beyond, and most importantly, to make disciples who will serve God with all of their heart.

We live in a time where church attendance and membership are declining, where we are seeing more churches close their doors more than the churches that are opening their doors, pastors and ministers leaving their ministry for various reasons and not having anyone to fill the void that they leave behind. Most importantly, we see people having less of a relationship with God because they seek their own desires or believe that all roads lead to God and that everybody gets into heaven. As believers in Christ, knowing that the Bible is the authoritative Word of God, and believing in the Trinity, we know and believe that there is only one way unto the Father (God), which is Jesus Christ. This world needs to know and understand that good works are not enough, being a good person is not enough, doing more good than we do bad is not enough to remove our sins. Jesus Christ is the only one who has that ability to remove sins from us once and for all.

God designed the church to be able to teach and educate those who want to believe in God and have a strong relationship that is intimate. Pastors and church leaders are able to answer the spiritual questions that we may have, or at least know where to find the answers for those questions. They are supposed to be living examples of how God can transform a life from one who was dead in sin into a life that is alive and thriving in intimacy with God Himself. The world tries to teach that God is this person who stays up in heaven and looks for every opportunity to see us doing wrong, for the world teaches us that we are so bad that God could never love us. When the church uses the Scriptures, they get to show us just how deeply God loves us, cares for us and desires to be with us — even when we do the most despicable things to Him or to one another. Why? Because of His love for us.

Church is designed to be a hospital for those who need to be on spiritual life support systems and to find healing and restoration. We were created to serve God by serving one another. The church is designed to meet the needs of people who don't realize the needs that they truly have. Church attendance and church membership give us the ability to develop disciplines and structure to be drawn closer to God, to separate ourselves from sinful habits, and to meet the needs of the world around us. Church is a safe place. Church is a home and the family to belong to.

Church is a place of healing.

I encourage you that if you do not have a church home and you want a place to belong, ask God to direct you to find a church that will help meet your needs spiritually and in all other ways. Make sure that the church is Scripturally sound, that the Trinity is not only acknowledged but also the center point of worship, and that the people are trying to make more disciples and to bring healing and restoration to all who seek it in the name of Christ our Lord.

If you are interested in joining Solid Rock Church of Warren and do you have questions, feel free to contact Pastor John. We are more than happy to not only answer your questions, but to also welcome you into the family. You have a place to belong and to be loved.

run for around two years each. The only one sold was Ole Brown. The owner is working on it, and hopefully Dave will have it in Bowling Green, Ohio, next year. The guys bring their old tractors to the fairground to show off. Old Brown with the Banter name on it will be there this year.

Before we finished, Dave wanted everyone to know how supportive and loving his wife was and is. She supported him and at times went with him. He appreciated her love and support through the years. She always stood by him.

Finally, we talked about faith. There is a saying: share your faith and, if you have to, use words. Dave did not say much, but he shared his faith with the guys in many ways. He would always pray for a safe pull, not necessarily a win, but a safe one. He would have a grill and feed the guys after a pull. When there was an argument, Dave would step in, say it wasn't necessary, and walk away.

Dave may be a quiet man, but his faith says a lot about him and his ways. He is humble, especially when talking about his wins, his Hall of Fame, and the articles written about the Banter Brothers. For more information and to watch Dave and Ralph at work, go to YouTube and type in Banter Brothers.

Shepherding Moments

Why We Should Attend and/or Join Church

I frequently hear the question or the statement regarding why a person should attend church and/or join the church. They follow this up with the statement that a person doesn't need to go to church or to be a member of a church to be able to believe in God or have a relationship with Him. And theologically speaking, there is discussion for both attending church and not attending church while having a relationship with God. Some say that it's not Scripturally demanded for a believer to attend church services, nor to be a member of a church, stating that neither of these practices gives the person "brownie points" with God. That discussion and debate is for a different article. However, I will give you my top 10 reasons (very similar to David Letterman's Top Ten list):

Top 10 Reasons for Attending and/or Joining Church

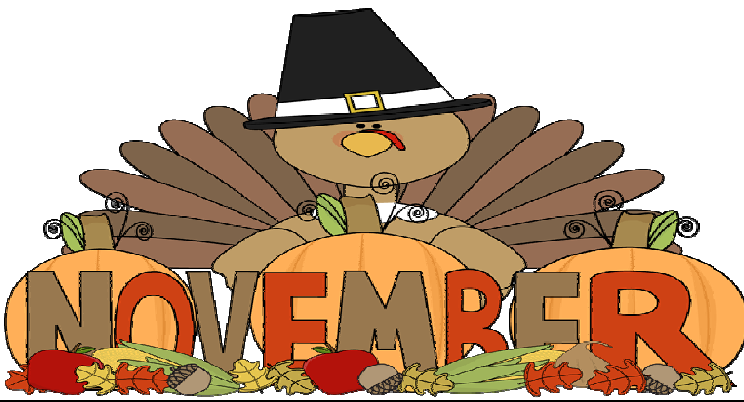

- 10) Church people know how to have amazing potluck dinners!

- 9) Where else can you have somebody watch your children in Sunday school class and not have to pay them for the babysitting?
- 8) Church is a place where you can sing off key as loud as you want, and nobody complains about it.
- 7) Seeing the expression on the parents' faces when a child answers the question that the pastor asked during the "Small Talk" session of the service and the child throws their parents under the bus!
- 6) How the pastor's sermon can put you to sleep faster than any sleep aid can.
- 5) Church is a place where a person can go for one week and then be asked to serve on 7 different committees...
- 4) Once you join the church, you get to choose what clique you want to belong to.
- 3) Where else can you go and form committees for everything, discuss many things, and still get nothing done?
- 2) You can say the word "hell" and not get in trouble for it! (It's Scriptural...)

Solid Rock Daily Prayer Card for November 2026

Prayer is the greatest, simplest privilege of our lives as believers.

Thank you for continuing to pray for Solid Rock. Following are some special requests:

- Father God, We are so grateful for all You do for us: Giving Your Son for our salvation, for the people in our lives, for the family we have, and the joy You bring us when we need it most. Help us to be thankful always, to praise You even when we might not see or feel You near, and may we always be obedient to Your voice and callings. We bless Your Name and praise Your Name. Amen.
- Precious Jesus, November is a month set apart to be thankful; but Lord, please help us to always be thankful to You! Help us to remember the joy of Your salvation, all of the miracles You have already done in our lives, and the same for those to come. Help our lives to be transformed enough that people will notice the difference in our lives—and that the difference is You. Help us to make disciples and friends of the faith. May Your will be done in or lives! In Thy Name we pray, Amen.
- Holy Spirit, lead us and guide us into righteousness. Take hold of us and help us to submit and transform our will unto Your will. We are thankful for You teaching us the truth about God and Jesus, as well about Who You are. May our praise never cease, just like Your love for us. Make us faithful followers. In Jesus' Name we pray, Amen.
- Blessed Trinity, we commit all of our love, praise and devotion to You alone. No one can ever love us like You do. No one can save us like You can. No one can fill the voids in our lives like You. We thank You for making us complete in You. May we never forget what it cost You for such love. Help us to return the same love to you to the best of our abilities. Thank You for our family, friends, church, and all else. Holy, holy, holy is Your Name. All glory and honor are Yours. Amen.

Drop down, ye heavens,
from above, and let the skies
pour down righteousness:
let the earth open, and
let them bring forth salvation,
and let righteousness spring
up together; I the Lord
have created it.
